DEFINITIONS

Food Establishment: A building or premises the principal use of which is for sale or dispensing or distribution or serving of food, foodstuff or drink for consumption on or off premises or in or out of the building.

Industrial Establishment: A building or premises the principal use of which is for manufacturing, processing, fabrication and storage or scientific research and development.

Retail and Wholesale Establishment: A building or premises the principal use of which is for the sale or distribution of any commodity for a price or fee by a seller to a consumer or by one business to another business.

Service Establishment: A building or premises the principal use of which is for the rendering of personal or material services for a price or fee whether or not a commodity is worked upon or exchanged.

The total floor area applicable for the determination of the yearly certification shall include the sum of all the floor areas in use, reserved for or retained for the use including, but not limited to, principal and accessory floor areas, cellars and basements, storage or detached accessory buildings, even though any such floor area may be temporarily vacant or not in use.

PRORATING CERTIFICATE FEE: Except where otherwise provided in the Village Code to the contrary, the applicant for a certificate for a new place of business or to engage in a new occupation or activity, is required to pay the proportionate part of the full annual certificate fee specified in this Code, but not less than fifty dollars ($50).
